Inspire Your Heart with Art Day

A day to ponder how art affects your heart. Art is valued and appreciated for all sorts of reasons!

The children's artwork will be displayed in the PAL lobby. Details to be announced.

Penguin Awareness Day, 1/20

A great opportunity to learn about and appreciate one of the few natives of Antarctica. On this day, the children will wear black and white, and enjoy learning about these cute and popular, grounded birds.

Happy New Year!
